An introduction

RAS Association

is an organization of the officers belonging to the Rajasthan Administrative Service. An officer becomes member of the Association as soon as he joins this premier service of the state. RAS officers are the steel backbone of the state's administration providing yeoman public service in the fields as diverse as Revenue administration, urban/rural development, social sectors and law & order just to name a few. The association has played an exemplary role in betterment of service conditions. So as to motivate its officers to serve the public better, the objectives of the Association are to work for the benefit, welfare and well being of the members ensuring their professional, cultural and holistic development. To this end, RAS Association is developing the RAS Officers' Club.

RAS Club is a stable yet happening, friendly yet exciting and an upcoming important part in the lives of the officers of Rajasthan Administrative Service. It has a growing membership and offers support to members for the fullest development of their imposing personalities. The Club serves as a place where members and their families can come to feel at home and participate in life mending activities such as gymnasium, rooftop tennis, swimming pool, business conference room, restaurant, bar, spa, indoor games, coffee shop etc.

We welcome all such people who have an interest to immerse in such social activities. Be it from corporate or private sectors, RAS Club is your single stop place to make a bold style statement for people who value quality living. Some benefits of The Club include empowerment, companionship and maintaining one's balance in life while of course rubbing shoulders with the cream of bureaucracy.
